

Current Chair and Managing Editor, Dr. Mahfuzur Rahman first started his business career in the year 1975 while still a student of political science in Dhaka University .He ventured into the garments industry winning awards for his performance and contribution in this industry.

He then moved on to establish the first private satellite channel in Bangladesh called ATN Bangla which was aired in over 150 countries at the time.

A conglomerate, ATN Group came into form and he received further recognition for his work both locally and internationally.