

Miss Sri Lanka 2011, or Stephanie Siriwardhana, graduated in June 2011 from the Concordia University, Montreal with a Specialization in Journalism and Communication with a minor in Political Science.

The 23-year-old is an accomplished singer who has sung in concerts, churches and musicals.

In May 2011, she was appointed Deputy CEO of BBS Publications International which is developing the very first and most comprehensive travel guide of Sri Lanka on mobile. The project and its result, a mobile application, will immensely help portray the beauty, charm and splendor of Sri Lanka, its people and its businesses to the wider world.
